- How it will broaden the range of activities and experiences available to the community.

We offer an annual programme of seasonal events, exhibitions and workshops from our community gallery at the gateway to the Far North District. We have a large number of volunteers, work with over 300 artists, 20 schools and hosts over 16 community events a year. All profits generated is to advance the charitable purpose of the Trust.

Events include: Seasonal Programme, Te Whakakupu Ako Art Incubator, Tamariki Toi School Holiday Programme, Northland Society of Authors Events, Creative Industry event, School Exhibition.

We have over 90,000 visitors/year - the programme and opportunity to participate provides for social, cultural and wellbeing objectives, not often otherwise catered for. Low incomes, accessibility to events and programmes and cultural barriers are too often hindering. We provide a sustainable, supportive and encouraging community space.
