Be Free benefiting our Youth & Community through collaboration.

Over the past year, we have forged friendships with fellow Youth music-based mentoring programmes in the wider BOI-Whangaroa and Te Hiku region. In the spirit of collaboration, we would like to share our platform with more youth from the Far North, and strengthen the network of youth, hoping to foster a feeling of pride, confidence and resilience in our young people and encouraging more youth to benefit from the Youth programmes available throughout our region.

Getting our message heard

Our Youth demonstrate through performance what they can achieve through learning resilience which gives them the strength to exercise their educated choices around non-participation in drug and alcohol use. We find delivering our messages through the medium of music is not only readily accepted, but is cross cultural, breaking down any barriers. The medium is far more effective to their peers (and whanau) when delivered by the youth themselves.

Feedback received from attendees at the festivals is often emotional in term of the availability of the programme and how it could have made such a difference had it been available for whanau at an earlier stage. This emphasises to us the importance of not just being able to continue the Be Free Youth Programme, but to increase the awareness of its availability of this and other Youth programmes within our regions to all youth, which we can do through this platform. During the event, attendees are able to access support and resources, engaging with support providers.
