REPORT

1) Meetings/Functions

March 30 – I have rung Mate Radich regarding the proposed Judder Bars in Waterfront Road where the Early Childhood Centre on this road.

April 24 – Joined online Zoom meeting

April 25 – I have started a process with John Stewart to possibly have a harbour walkway in Houhora. We have both talked to a Technical Expert about getting some aerial drone footage of the proposed area.

April 28 – Work restarted on the rugby field and tennis court project in Houhora. Due to the Level 3 lockdown commencing. After several meetings with the Bowling Club committee, Chez Rose (Council), and Justin Edgecombe (Rugby coach). We have come to a point where everyone is happy!

May 1 – Joined online Zoom meeting

May 2 – I have talked to the local police officer about the roadblock due to covid-19, just south of Rarawa turn off. Local police have been back to inform me that now the roadblock has been moved north of Rarawa turn off and includes police presence. The roadblock will be removed permanently when the country moves to Level 2.
