We want to celebrate Diwali in Keri Keri through music, dance and interactive dance workshops.

This will involve the youth of the local migrant community providing them a platform to be engaged and empowered to contribute actively as members of society. This event will allow inclusion of minority groups and encourage participation. These groups are often misunderstood and can feel a sense of cultural identity loss in moving to a new country It will promote diversity and acceptance of our multi-ethnic mixing pot that is Keri Keri. We feel this event will be fun, lively and appropriate for families and children. It will create a sense of connectedness and increase foot traffic, promoting the local businesses in the area too. We are confident this event will be a success and will become a part of the local community annual calendar as something to look forward to by all. We want to attract people of all ethnicities, ages and genders. It will appeal to those that are migrants by way of the term 'Diwali' but we want to ensure all are welcome This is why we are having interactive workshops and a dress up competition We will also be announcing the line up in English and providing teaching and story telling throughout to educate those that are unfamiliar with the concept behind Diwali and south Asian culture.
