There is no competitive basketball taking place in Hokianga. The only avenue at the moment for basketball is a regular local scrimmage where over 30 people attend. The 4 boys travelling to Waipapa twice weekly were chosen on their passion and love for basketball, but mostly their attitude and behaviour. The players have been connected with the Mid North United Sports - Above the Rim Coach – where they will further develop their skills, game and increase the opportunities of travel, tournaments and seeing Aotearoa. The majority of the funds will contribute to the petrol costs to run the boys to and from Waipapa twice weekly a 2 hour round trip (140km). Their parents see the benefits of their children being involved in sport so have committed their Tuesday's and Saturday's to chauffeur them. A small amount will used to support the travel costs of our U9s team to play in an away mini tournament in Kaikohe at the end of the term.
