To purchase balls of yarn/wool for the New Zealand Red Cross Paihia Knitting Group to continue their volunteer work in a community to craft sweaters, hats, blankets, scarves, and other treasures for the vulnerable people that live in the region.

A Community project that our knitters are keen to continue is knitting baby blankets and baby clothes for the vulnerable children in the Far North area. These families are identified via local Midwives and through the local maternity hospital in Kawakawa.

If we were successful in securing funding for our knitting projects, this would allow our 14 local volunteers to continue to meet regularly to knit and to encourage other home knitters to help our volunteers that work on these projects.
