5.6 Style Guide

All road names are entirely at the discretion of Council whether for policy reasons or other considerations.

Names should be easy to spell and pronounce, however in the case of Maori names it is accepted that a name that may at first appear to be complex will, over time, become familiar and easy to use within the community. Names cannot be offensive, insensitive, ambiguous, nor have a double meaning.

The possessive's' is discouraged.

Names should generally be 15 characters or less including spaces but excluding suffix. However in exceptional circumstances longer road names may be allowed.

Short names should be chosen for short streets for mapping purposes.

Cardinal points of the compass (e.g. North, South) as a prefix or suffix to a road name should not be used. Generally roads should not be named after any commercial organisation or any living or recently deceased person. Road names should not be anagrams, amalgamations or derivatives of people's names.
