The Kawakawa community development plan was last created in 2000. There was a ref In 2012 but it was generally felt that it was time to complete the process of a new plan.

Some engagement occurred. Led by the Kawakawa Business & Community Association There was a lot of work done in the time from 2012 to 2019. Collecting people's ideas, Aspirations, opinions.

In 2019 there was a working group formed. And we found we didn't need to start from Scratch, but instead test those previous ideas and add to them.

All sorts of themes like retaining the towns heritage, youth facilities, provision of housing

During 2019 – 2020 the working group carried out focus groups to test the ideas – And now we are ready to have a draft written.

To progress, we need some funding for the development plan to be written.

This will include a further process of engagement & facilitation within the community. Especially since COVID has impacted our ability to communicate effectively within the Kawakawa community. A draft will then be written and presented to the community, using face-to-face & online format. Feedback will then form the final plan.
