The Turner Centre is proposing to bring together some of Kerikeri’s most accomplished performers to stage a fundraising concert for the children of Gaza. Gaza’s children are in crisis. More than 10,000 have already been killed in the ongoing crisis and a million children are facing starvation. UNICEF is calling on communities across New Zealand to band together to raise funds for the children of Gaza. Tickets to The Children of Gaza fundraising concert will be offered on a pay-what-you-can basis. All proceeds raised will be donated to UNICEF New Zealand’s Urgent appeal for children of Gaza Crisis. Multi-award-winning local musician Troy Kingi, internationally-acclaimed opera star Kawiti Waetford and award-winning songwriter and musician Gerry Paul are confirmed to perform at the concert and the Turner Centre is currently mobilising other performers to participate.

Up to 1000 locals will be able to attend the whanau-friendly event (the capacity of our events centre). The local community will benefit by coming together to support an extremely worthy cause and will have the opportunity to experience high-quality Aotearoa music.

The Turner Centre is seeking funding of $6,000 from the Community Board towards venue technician, promotion and administration costs, as well as a koha to be split among the musicians who are performing (NB this koha is significantly less than the typical performance fees they would command).
