We are seeking training funding for 10 of our staff in water safety. We work with 250 rangatahi each year. We are on the ship, swimming in caves, snorkeling, rock jumping and swinging from the ship. Given the variety of activities and risks, we are seeking extra training to make sure our team is confident in identifying panic, hypothermia, rescues, and working with weak swimmers and how to cope with this. We have approached Drowning Prevention Auckland to run training on our ship, in the location and activities for our rangatahi.
