Kia ora Selina,

I have spoken to the kaumatua about the name Tareha for Jared and confirmed NgatiRehia supports the name Tareha.

Nga mihi

Kia ora Selina,

Thanks for the feedback.

Yes, it would be preferable to have a Maori road name, since our first option was taken (Suggestions from Ngati Rehia gladly welcomed)

I have actually just found an alternative more suitable name, that I'm hoping is available and could be approved:

Tareha Place

Tareha – was a rangatira of Ngati Rehia, large in both mana and size.

Widely known as Hongi's 'chief captain', his family ties and mana saw him take part in many significant events of the pre-treaty period.

Missionaries recognised Tareha as a significant leader of Te Waimate, Te Tii, Mangonui and Kerikeri.

Regards

Jared

Kia ora Jared,

I have received a reply to your 2nd option for Ploughmans Close and I have received a reply from the meeting as below:

RESOLUTION 2019/35

Moved: Member Martin Robinson

Seconded: Member Manuwai Wells

That the Bay of Islands-Whangaroa Community Board agree to the report Road Naming – Ploughmans Close, Kerikeri be left to lie on the table until Ngati Rehia provide support for Huakiwi Place or a more suitable name.

CARRIED

I have tried to get in touch with Ngati Rehia but I have not had any reply. I will keep trying and I will ask the Governance Department, because I have had no reply from Ngati Rehia, can we please go ahead with Ploughmans Close as per your application.

My apologies for the delay for this.

Kia ora Jared,

Just to advise that the Roding assets team has advised that there is already a road named Ruatara in Kerikeri which is the private road through the Retirement Village. So I have recommended your 1st or 2nd choice up to the Community Board.

Ruatara Place as there is already a Ruatara Drive in Kerikeri which is the private road through the Retirement Village. Either their Second or Third choice would be acceptable.
