- How it will broaden the range of activities and experiences available to the community.

KOAST art trail is held annually over three days during the labour weekend in October. We are currently in the set up process of our 6th event, which has grown from hosting 32 artists in the first couple of years with an estimated 1000 visitors to an incredible 65 artists participating and attracting 3000 visitors. KOAST 2019 strategy looks to increase the number of visitors from outside the Bay of Islands. We look to achieve this by increasing our advertising and marketing budget to national publications, cinema ads and DLE I-sites.

KOAST supports art students, emerging artists as well as career / established artists. In 2019 we seek to hire three quality group venue spaces, that are more suitable to displaying and exhibiting a diversity of art disciplines. Each of the venues will showcase guest artists that are invited from the greater Far North district and local artists. Each venue will be curated and managed by the exhibiting artists.

Kingston House has been chosen as a leading venue to exhibit as it has good lighting, plenty of wall hanging space, outdoor gardens for sculptures and has plenty of parking. It is an ideal place to stop and reflect on the trail.

Cherry Park House is Kerikeri's own local art centre has been selected to help promote the centre and inspire people to learn a creative discipline. The Turner Centre has also approached KOAST to be considered as a venue and will open its cafe to enable the art trail to have a designated coffee stop. In addition we have 30+ artists have opened up their own art studio spaces to the public. A Trail Guide can be purchased and each visitor can select what they would like to see.
