We support the volunteer leaders/coordinators by; promoting volunteering, providing advice, advocacy, plus volunteer recognition.

The centre provides opportunities for people who are looking to find their place in the community, to gain experience, contribute to a cause, or to simply give back to their community. We continually offer a wide variety of volunteer opportunities to help cater to individual interests, and expertise. We pride ourselves in being able to match strong volunteer candidates to the opportunities listed.

Individuals, non-profits and the community as a whole benefit. Without volunteers many services wouldn't be able to operate. We work with 79 organisations in the Far North District and another 51 on a casual basis. We organise subsidised (some 100%) Professional Development training/workshops (First Aid, Governance, Volunteer Management) for paid and volunteer staff from non-profits. We actively promote volunteer opportunities by holding stalls at community events, advertising weekly in the Northern Advocate and Northland Age, and using social media to directly reach individuals in the community.
