At present the Unit operates from inadequate rental premises in Waipapa whilst the development of a permanent base is established on land leased (rent free) from Landcorp's Pamu Farms Block at Puketotara. Delivery and construction of a TotalSpan shed for meetings and to house the Unit's ex Army Unimog vehicle which has been and is available for Community civil defence and Search and Rescue services is expected shortly. Costs in this regard have been met from Lottery Grant funding as listed.

Grant funding is sought to purchase items for service facilities not included in the contract in order that meetings may commence.

The Unit members have regularly supported and provided Community activities through obligatory and fundraising events e.g. Anzac Day and Christmas Parades. An important part Cadets service requirements.
