But to summarise - Te Tau Hou Maori Light, Firework and Waka Display. This free event attracted in excess of 3,500 people into Paihia on the Saturday night (postponed from Friday due to a storm!). An audio story recorded by Ngati Kawa and Heeni Hoterene played on speakers across the waterfront, this narrated our story of Pewhairangi, and explained our relationship with Puanga and Matariki. It was a massive success The workshops and free events during both days was also well attended.

Describe the main findings in your evaluation of the project/event; describe how your project/event benefited the community:

As per attached document.
But to summarise - it brought many people - visitors and local community into town to celebrate Matariki, with the collaboration from all the parties involved it proved to be an incredibly successful event. The enthusiasm and feedback proved that this was an event that the community and local businesses wanted, to tell the story of our culture and Matariki, as well as adding some vibrancy into town in one of the quietest months of the year.

Please provide details and attach or email photos and/or any marketing collateral that was produced for your event/project acknowledging the Community Board:
