Context of this agreement - Kupu whakataki

The Treaty of Waitangi / Te Tiriti o Waitangi is the founding document of this country and the beginning of a building of a new nationhood. It was signed in 1840 at Waitangi and sets the parameters for progressing the future of the relationship.

For Te Kahu o Taonui (Taitokerau Iwi Chairs Forum), The Treaty of Waitangi / Te Tiriti o Waitangi, together with He Whakaputanga o Te Rangatiratanga o Nu Tireni (Declaration of Independence), provides the agreement to allow the beginning of a new nation, and the basis of Maori relationship with all New Zealanders as represented by government, including local government.

In November 2014, the Waitangi Tribunal found that Northland Māori who were signatories to Te Tiriti o Waitangi did not cede sovereignty¹ and this position has been held by successive northern Māori leaders. The Tribunal has also recognised the intention to establish a mutually beneficial relationship between Māori and the Crown, based on principles of The Treaty of Waitangi / Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

An historic first meeting was held between Te Kahu o Taonui and the Mayors of the three Northland district councils and the Chairman of Northland Regional Council (Northland Mayoral Forum) on Tuesday 13 June 2017 (the parties).

The meeting was sought by council leadership and Iwi leadership to foster a more cohesive and inclusive governance to governance relationship between Local Government and Iwi Authorities of Taitokerau.

This agreement encourages and supports a long-term relationship between the Northland Mayoral Forum and Te Kahu O Taonui in a manner that respects the indigenous heritage of the region.

The parties, while each bring their own perspective to the table, share common goals and aspirations for the environmental, social, cultural and economic wellbeing of the region.

The parties acknowledge that a relationship informed by the role of the region as the birthplace of our nationhood, could also be the blueprint for building a region that enables all communities to prosper and do well.

The Agreement

1. Purpose - Whāingā

The purpose of this relationship is to work together and invest in an intergenerational relationship that is based on mutual respect, is enduring and provides continuity through a shared vision, purpose and goals for mutually beneficial outcomes.

2. Vision - Te Moemoea

This relationship seeks to progress the following shared vision:

Te Taitokerau – the birth place of the nation, a region that leads the way in caring for the wellbeing of its people and its environment.

3. Principles

Three principles are inherent to The Treaty of Waitangi / Te Tiriti o Waitangi; and the intent of these is preserved and advanced in this Agreement.

Partnership

Partnership is about mutual good faith and reasonableness. Local Government and Iwi Māori will act towards each other mutually and in good faith.

Participation and Decision Making

Both Local Government and Iwi Māori need to be equally and fully informed of each other's interests and views. When exercising the right to govern, decision makers must be equally informed. For the parties involved, full information will be provided in order to participate in the decision-making process. This is connected closely to the principles of good faith and active protection.

Active Protection

Active protection requires participating and informal decision making processes and judgement as to what is reasonable in the circumstances. This relates to Māori interests as part of the promises made in The Treaty of Waitangi / Te Tiriti o Waitangi, where there is a commitment that all Māori culture, traditions, and taonga will be protected.

In practice these principles mean:

- a) The parties, in pursuit of common goals and objectives both agree to work together to uphold the wellbeing of our communities so that none get left behind and all have an equal opportunity to contribute.

- b) The parties will work in a manner that recognises and respects the:
 - mana, authority and kaitiakitanga status of Iwi and the mana and authority of Councils who are parties to this agreement
 - the desire of the parties to enhance the cultural, social, economic, and environmental wellbeing of all people
 - shared desire to provide for effective participation by Iwi to provide for empowered and more effective Council governance and to provide for strong communities in Northland
 - shared obligation to sustainably manage the Northland environment for current and future generations.

- c) The parties will show the highest levels of integrity, transparency and flexibility towards each other.

- d) They will ensure there are no surprises but a proactive intent to engage early, constructively and positively on matters of shared priority and interest.
