Clearly describe the project or event:

Location Time

- How it will broaden the range of activities and experiences available to the community.

We are applying for Funding for Bands/Performers Ferry Crossings, and also for Special Ferries for our visitors.

- Our Festival Venues are situated in Waimamaku, Omapere, Opononi, Rawene and Kohukohu. Continuous music is played at all venues throughout the weekend, with the opportunity for everyone to enjoy Hokianga at their leisure, not just the music but also green countryside, beautiful harbour vistas and our hokianga hospitality. These are all memories that our visitors take home with them and also what brings them back.

Our festival bands will be crossing on the Ferry throughout the weekend, as well as many festival goers to get to Kohukohu Hotel venue. Kohukohu Is 'an off the radar' township that so many of our festival patrons take this opportunity to see the North side and Kohukohu.

With the influx of people at this time of year, the majority of our accommodation is snapped up, local business gear up for a busy Weekend. Accommodation, food services, petrol services, and hotels gear up for our visitors at this time. Receipt sales of badge sold indicate on average 600-700 people every year are in the area.

- We are always grateful and appreciative to the our volunteers who give their time to make our festival memorable. Ladies from the Lions have manned our Opononi Door for several years, all our Door People, Courtesy Van Drivers, Advertising boards, and especially our committee who organize Bands, Venues, Funding, Billboards, Flyers, Badges, Decorating venues voluntarily.
