Project Outline:

The Horeke Whanau Day has become an annual event that is looked forward to by the local community. Similar to a Christmas parade or Christmas in the park, we will invite the community to come and listen and enjoy entertainment. It is always our goal to encourage those that reside in the community to be actively involved. We also invite the local schools to join us.

This year we are trying something a little different starting our event later in the afternoon, so as to not clash with other community events we are hoping to create a relaxed atmosphere where families can come, sit, eat and enjoy entertainment. Nga Mahi Toi o Horeke being a creative group visualizes an eclectic Christmas theme so we will be working towards creating spaces to sit as well as displaying art works that have been created throughout the year. For us the event is not just an event but an opportunity to be creative and show off why our community is special, leaving those who attend with a lasting impression.
