Give a brief description of the highlights of your project including numbers participating:

Over 3000 members of the Kaikohe community came together to support the Christmas Parade. The event aimed not only to celebrate the upcoming festive season but also to strengthen the sense of community connection. The parade featured christmas-themed floats, local entertainment, food and of course the main attraction - Santa. The event successfully highlighted the christmas spirit and brought the community closer together.

Describe the main findings in your evaluation of the project/event; describe how your project/event benefited the community:

The Christmas parade had many positive effects on the community. It promoted inclusivity and diversity by providing children with the opportunity to meet and play with others they might not typically interact with at school. It helped to foster community pride, encourage economic growth, and promote inclusive celebrations, all of which have become important parts of local holiday traditions. The parade had a lasting impact on community spirit, demonstrating the power of shared support, and local traditions.
