Good afternoon.

Your email was passed onto Councils Legal department.

Im sure they will respond as soon as they can – I have asked again on your behalf.

There is no "case file". The dog was picked up essentially for straying.

Regards

Dear Mr Thomas,

It has been 19 days since your email.

Would you please advise who we should correspond with to get a response on our email below, including the evidence and documentation relating to dog?

I have cc'ed this to the CE's office to obtain an RFS number so that the progress can be appropriately tracked at Council.

Thanks

On Thursday, August 29, 2019, 8:31 AM,

Dear Mr Thomas,

I write on behalf of _____ who has sought my assistance in relation to your letter of 12 August, 2019, received on 15 August 2019, which advised that the Far North District Council has classified her dog Richard as Menacing under S 33 C (1) of the Dog Control Act 1999.

objects to her dog being classified as a menacing dog on a number of grounds.

Please provide all evidence substantiating the reasonable grounds on which you have formed that belief.

Please provide me with the full case file and any other documentation you hold in relation to her dog.

Please respond to _____ and I in writing, via the email addresses above.

Your sincerely,

The BOI Watchdogs
