Our netball court surface is in a state of disrepair and is creating a hazard for our facility users. We humbly request funding to resurface this court and to also repurpose it so that netball and tennis (existing use) can be played as well as basketball (new use). Basketball is a growth sport in our community and there is currently no outdoor courts which are freely available for public use in Awanui. Awanui is a town with a lot of young kids and we want to provide them with a safe and world class facility to pursue leisure and sport. This resurfacing is the first step for us in our wider rejuvenation project. We have received approval for $50,000 from Foundation North, $21,739 from Pub Charity and $21,739 from Oxford Sports Trust, $21,739 from TAB NZ and are fundraising the rest of the funds now so that we can stay on our project start date of January.
